Passage 1

Nightmare stories on video: Our nightmare story this week is about Nicholas White, who was stuck in a lift for 41 hours.

34-year-old Nicholas White was a manager for a business magazine in New York. One Friday night he was working late at the office when he decided to go outside for a quick cigarette. It was the longest cigarette break of his life.

While White was returning to his office on the 43rd floor, the lift suddenly stopped between floors. He calmly pushed the alarm button and waited for an answer. Nothing. He began to get anxious.

He rang it a few times. Then he pulled the button out, so that the alarm rang and rang continuously. Still no answer. It was 11 p.m. and nobody was working – the building was empty. Now he was frightened. He wasn't wearing a watch.

White walked round and round the lift like an insect stuck in a box. Sometimes he laid on the floor, with his face down because the light was very bright. He tried to stay calm by thinking about other things. At one point he took out his wallet and read the back of a football match ticket. After some time, he felt angry – very angry. Why wasn't the lift working? Why was nobody answering? He hit the walls several times and shouted at the video camera. The noise of the alarm was driving him crazy, but he didn't want to turn it off.

As time passed he thought that he was going to die without water. Friday turned to Saturday, and Saturday to Sunday. White was now exhausted. Then, suddenly, at 4 p.m., a voice on the intercom asked, 'Is someone in there?'

Passage 2

Katerina

My idea was to travel around South East Asia and visit two or three different countries. But when I got to Thailand, I didn't leave because it was so fabulous there. I really loved doing yoga on the beach each morning and then going for a swim. The weather was amazing, too. Things aren't too expensive in the markets, so I got a few souvenirs for my parents.

Sanjeev

I arrived in Vietnam first. I was on a package tour, which meant that I didn't have a lot of freedom to go off on my own. There was an activity planned for us every minute of the day, and we saw some of the most beautiful scenery I've ever seen in my life. We were also taken on an 'island-hopping' trip to see the islands around there, and that was on a special type of Vietnamese boat called a junk.

Aoife

I'd just won some money, so I decided to treat myself and my friend to a luxury holiday travelling around the islands of Indonesia. We were there for three weeks and travelled to about ten different islands during that time. I think Indonesia has the best beaches in the world! We had some good meals, too.

Dimitris

I visited Cambodia, and it was, without a doubt, the holiday of a lifetime for me. What I remember most about my time there is the food. I've never tasted fish or vegetables like that before, and sadly I probably won't again unless I go back there. There was a dish called fish amok, which I had every other day because I loved it so much.

Maya

I didn't have much money left by the time I got to the Philippines because it was the last place I visited. That wasn't a problem, though, and I had a great time. My favourite place was Banaue, which has lots of spectacular ancient rice terraces. I particularly enjoyed visiting the river markets, but of course I wasn't able to buy any souvenirs for my family and friends.

- 51. Which word has similar meaning to fabulous (paragraph 1)?
a. beautiful b. normal c. unamazing d. regular
- 52. Which word has opposite meaning to luxury (paragraph 3)?
a. comfort b. richness c. disappointment d. enjoyment

a. Katerina hates a dish called fish amok.
b. Maya got a few souvenirs for her parents.
c. Aoife travelled to different islands in Indonesia.
d. Dimitris had a package tour to an island.

Write people's name. Who.....

- 55. thought the beaches were really fantastic?
