Part III Reading (15 Marks)

Directions (Item 36-50): Read the passage and answer the questions.

Passage 1

Pavement Rage

- (1) It is Oxford Street, London, 11 a.m. The pavements are crowded with shoppers and tourists. I'm going to an appointment at 11.15 and walking as fast as I can. So far, I'm on time, but a group of tourists is walking along very slowly in front of me and taking photos of the shop displays. They block my way and don't move even when I say politely, 'Excuse me...'. I go red and feel angry. I've got pavement rage.
- (2) Oxford Street is one the busiest streets in the world. Two million shoppers visit it every year, and sometimes people get angry with tourists and slow pedestrians who are texting, window shopping or talking on their phones. According to a recent newspaper article, 9 out of 10 people experience pavement rage at some time.
- (3) One solution to this problem is a pedestrian fast lane. Most pedestrians travel along Oxford Street at a speed of 1 mile per hour, but in the fast lane, the minimum speed is 3 miles per hour. People in the fast lane can't talk on their phones or listen to music, and they need to know exactly where they are going. CCTV cameras check their speed and police officers fine people not following the rules.
- (4) The city council have seen the plans for a fast lane and like the idea, but the problem is cost. Who's going to pay for it, make new street signs and make sure it works? Also, are pedestrians ready for a fast lane?

36. What is the main idea of the passage?
- Crowded pavement can cause pavement rage.
 - A pedestrian fast lane is under the construction.
 - A fast lane is suitable for people with appointment.
 - Pavement rage always happens because of foreign tourists.
37. What does the sentence “I go red.” (paragraph 1) mean ?
- I walk on a red fast lane.
 - I am mad at people in front of me.
 - I decide to go to the red shop.
 - I am anxious of being late for appointment.
38. Which of the following words has similar meaning to the word “solution” (paragraph 3)?
- a fix
 - a trouble
 - a question
 - a request
39. What does the pronoun “they” (paragraph 3) refer to?
- most pedestrians
 - pedestrians on the fast lane
 - CCTV cameras
 - police officers
40. According to the passage, which of the following sentences is true?
- The writer is upset because he/her is late for his/her appointment.
 - Slow pedestrians on a fast lane would be fined for not following the rule.
 - Every year two million pedestrians face pavement rage on Oxford Street.
 - Money is an important problem for constructing road to Oxford.
41. Do you think it is a good idea or bad idea for people to walk along the crowded street with their headphones on? Why?
42. What would you do if you have a pavement rage when you are in a hurry? Write a short answer.

Passage 2

A home in Peru

(1) So there I was in my new country – Peru. I knew I was lucky to have a job, but I was worried because I couldn’t speak Spanish very well. I moved into a nice apartment, which was in the centre of Lima, the capital city. In the beginning, I found everything very exciting. The weather was great and I certainly didn’t miss the rain we had every day in Seattle. The city was lively, and I enjoyed walking around taking photographs and visiting the markets. Everything was new and I loved it!

(2) I had many great times during my years there. Peruvians are people who love to celebrate – it doesn’t matter what the occasion is. Families get together at every opportunity to eat, talk, drink and laugh, and I was invited into many homes. Travel is cheap and if you travel from region to region, you soon understand just what a variety of their history, people and nature there is in the country. Seeing the Amazon rainforest was a really unforgettable experience for me.

(3) Living in Peru has taught me a lot about my attitude to life. I used to be a worrier. I always needed to have a plan and a list. I was always the person who needed to get the job finished. But seeing how other people live has made me think again about what’s really important in life. I care less about buying things now – smartphones, expensive clothes and so on. What I do care about is making beautiful memories for tomorrow.

43. What is the main idea of the passage?
- The writer enjoyed nice weather in the city of Lima.
 - The writer moved to Peru but he/she couldn’t speak much Spanish.
 - The writer had an amazing life experience after moving to a new country.
 - The writer travelled to different parts of the country and understood more about the culture.

44. Which of the following words has similar meaning to the word “lively” (paragraph 1)?
a. cheerful b. depressed c. inactive d. unpleasant
45. What does the pronoun “their” (paragraph 2) refer to?
a. families b. homes c. opportunities d. peruvians
46. Which of the following words has opposite meaning to the word “unforgettable” (paragraph2)?
a. great b. impressive c. memorable d. ordinary
47. According to the passage, which of the following sentences is incorrect?
a. The weather in Seattle is as enjoyable as that in Peru.
b. Being a worrier, the writer always has plans for things he/she does.
c. Peruvians love celebrations for different occasions with their families.
d. It is now clear that the writer understood what is important in living a life
48. What are the advantages and disadvantages of travelling to different places? Write a short answer.
49. If you could move and live in any country, where would you like to live and why did you choose that country? Write a short answer.
50. What are important things in your life? Give us two examples and reasons.
